COURSE SYLLABUS - AAA 408/508 JOB SEARCH STRATEGIES

1 credit: P/NP
Meeting Times: 100% on-line asynchronous
Instructor: Kassia Dellabough
Office Hours: Virtual or by appointment. Contact kassia@uoregon.edu

Course Objectives:
This course is specifically designed for students actively seeking jobs and/or internships. It is assumed that you have a resume and other related job search tools (including portfolio/work samples or other documents relevant to your area) ready for distribution (if not see resources below).

Students will learn strategies for clarifying “best-fit” for job and internship opportunities. Students will review the major job search engines and how to navigate the Internet to find opportunities efficiently. Students will also learn other resources and ways to find job/internship opportunities including informational interviews, networking, alumni contacts, professional associations, and publications.

Course Outcomes: -Students will-
• be able to search major job search engines effectively.
• learn alternative strategies for finding employment opportunities.
• learn where to find information about international opportunities and how to find out about country-specific work-visas and other regulations.
• make contact with at least two alumni in their area of interest.
• identify best strategies that fit your individual style to network and make contact that could lead to employment.
• learn how to approach potential employers effectively.

Course Requirements:
Students will be expected to complete assignments and participate in discussion forums. Assignments include one research update, top jobs list, resource sharing assignment, and final reflective paper. Additional projects may be assigned.

Graduate Students: Additional work will be required for all graduate students. Specific assignments will be co-designed with instructor to reflect student needs and fulfill additional level of work to meet graduate level expectations.

COMMITMENT TO DIVERSITY

It is the policy of the University of Oregon to support and value cultural diversity. To do so requires that we:

- Respect the dignity and essential worth of all individuals.
- Promote a culture of respect throughout the University community.
- Respect the privacy, property, and freedom of others.
- Reject bigotry, discrimination, violence, or intimidation of any kind.
- Practice personal and academic integrity and expect it from others.
- Promote the diversity of opinions, ideas and backgrounds which is the lifeblood of the university.

The School of Architecture and Allied Arts is a community that values inclusion. We are committed to equal opportunities for all faculty, staff and students to develop individually, professionally, and academically regardless of ethnicity, heritage, gender, sexual orientation, ability, socio-economic standing, cultural beliefs and traditions. We are dedicated to an environment that is inclusive and fosters awareness, understanding, and respect for diversity. If you feel excluded or threatened, please contact your instructor and/or department head. The University Bias Response Team is also a resource that can assist you. Find more information at their website at http://bias.uoregon.edu/index.html or by phoning 541-346-2037.

Disabilities:

If you have a documented disability and anticipate needing accommodations in this course, please make an appointment with me during the first week of the term.
